

What have we been up to this week?

This week in Prep we have been learning about different materials we use to make things with. The children made playdough and will be moulding a goat and building a bridge using a variety of materials and testing their designs as part of our Integrated Studies.

Star of the Week

Prep Mac: Darcy R-for being extremely brave when he injured himself at playtime

Prep F: Pippa W-for always coming to school with a positive attitude and ready to learn

Prep R: Levi V- for his adventures with Baby Star

Reminders for the week:

- Come dressed in your favourite Book Week character on Monday 20th August. There will be a parade at Monday assembly.
- Each Prep Class will be sending home their Special Bear to take home next week. A roster was sent home last term. Each child in the class will get to keep their Special Bear for 4 nights and will show the class their adventures they shared together. Please remember to bring your book back each week for the next person to take home.
- Production tickets have now gone on sale. These are available for purchase. A Compass message and reminder was sent home this week.
- Tickets for Production can be purchased online for $21.00
