Term 3 week 7

Friday 31st August 2018

What have we been up to this week?

This week in Prep we have been revising all our letters and sounds. The children have done a wonderful job practising and rehearsing for our Whole School Production and they looked fantastic in their costumes. The children were photographed in their Production outfits and these photos can be purchased on the night in the foyer at Yarra Valley Grammar. Proceeds raised will assist with funds towards Grade 6 Graduation.

Term 2 Important dates

Children will need to bring their snack and lunch in a separate bag on the day. No lunchboxes on Tuesday or Thursday. No drink bottles as there are taps at Yarra Valley.

School Production A-K 4th September

School Production L-Z 6th September

Friday 7th September-Curriculum Day-Pupil Free Day

Star of the Week

Prep Mac: Isabella G-for excellence in extending her word knowledge.

Prep F: Indie Atkinson: For making great improvement in her reading. Keep up the great work!

Prep R: Alyssa D-for showing responsibility at our Production Rehearsals.

Reminders for the week:

Yarra Valley Production Practise

Children will need to bring their snack and lunch in a separate bag for their Production Practise at Yarra Valley.

Performance Night at Yarra Valley

On the Production Night we ask students not to bring in food due to many children with allergies. Children can bring a drink bottle to sip on the night. Prep children will be collected from the holding room backstage at the end of the night.

Consent for Bus to Yarra Valley

- An important reminder that all parents need to sign and consent to travel by bus for the Production Rehearsals at Yarra Valley on COMPASS for 4th September (A-K) and 6th September (L-Z).

Curriculum Day

- Just a reminder that there is a Curriculum Day on Friday 7th September. This will be a pupil free day.
