

Our Prep News

Week beginning February 11th, 2019

What's Happened This Week

- A big THANKYOU to those parents that assisted in the big tidy up of our outdoor learning space. The Preps cannot wait to get into all of the new sand in the sandpit.
- A big CONGRATULATIONS to all of the preps for reaching 10 days of school.

★ Stars of The Week ★

(presented at Monday's assembly)

Prep F

Myron Atwill for a wonderful start to his first year of prep

Prep M

Ashlea Wier for reading her level 2 book so beautifully.

A Note From Mrs. Macrae & Miss Franklin

- Preps will attend their first Assembly this coming Monday. They will walk in with their buddies
- Please check COMPASS for upcoming events such as Prep Social Night and The Teddy Bears Picnic. If you are having difficulty with the App, the ladies in the office will be happy to help you.
- We are collecting donations of Tombola jars and chocolate bars for our upcoming Twilight Market.
- Each donation will receive house points.
- We will be asking for volunteers for small amounts of time on Market Night.
- We are still waiting for some family photos. Please send in with your child so we can finalise our Family wall.

A Peek At What We Are Learning next week

Reading	We will be learning about the Readers Workshop and Independent Reading. We will be selecting books to put into our personal book boxes for independent reading time.
Writing	We will be learning about the Writer's Notebook and Independent Writing. We will be having a go at writing our own ideas in our writers notebooks.
Math	We will be completing the topic - Sorting and Classifying. Our next topic will be Numbers to 10.
Integrated Studies	We will be looking at our community and ways that we can be bucket fillers in that community.
